UNIVERSITY OF MD., DEPT OF PLANT PATHOLOGY

Mr. C. S. Perdue, College Park, Md., Aug. 17, 1933.
Showell, Md.

Dear Mr. Perdue:

The strawberry plants selected from your various plantings by Dr. G. S. Lankford and Mr. R. J. Christie have all been examined carefully for Dwarf (crimp) disease.

You will be glad to know, I am sure, that no infestation was found on any of the plants. Very truly yours,

C. E. TEMPLE, State Plant Pathologist.

NOTE: A certificate of Inspection from our State Entomologist and State Pathologist will accompany each shipment.

H. W. Kisenwether of Pa. writes April 24, 1933: "The 15,000 Premier I got last year were fine. Send 7,000 more by express."

Showell Maryland,

Dear Friends and Patrons:

I am writing to you in reference to your orders for strawberry plants as I have 10,000,000 grown on new land under the best methods of cultivation, with the proper amount of fertilizer for producing very large size plants with an excellent root system, State certified, disease free, true-to-name plants. You cannot get any better stock, no matter where you get them. The plants are put in proper shape and tied in bundles of 25 plants each, correctly labeled, and packed in light baskets and crates with plenty of damp moss, so they will reach you in perfect condition for planting, and produce a very large crop of fine strawberries.

Description of Varieties with Prices

MISSIONARY (Early). An excellent grower of plants producing large crops of very firm, medium to large, bright red berries.

BLAKEMORE (Early). They make a prolific growth of healthy plants. Very productive of large size, bright red berries of excellent quality. A good shipping variety.

PREMIER (Early). Perdue's Premier are large size, disease free, well rooted plants and will produce enormous crops of large size, bright red berries with green caps. This variety does not bloom early, making it almost frost proof.

IMPROVED HEFLIN (Extra Early). A vigorous grower of plants. Berries are large size, bright red color, excellent quality.

BIG JOE, Joe Johnson, Joe (Midseason). They produce large size, vigorous plants bearing heavily of very large, bright red berries of an excellent quality and flavor.

GANDY (Late to very late). A good grower of plants. Berries large size, bright red with green caps, and of excellent flavor.

WYONA (The latest known variety). The plants are disease free and bear large crops bright red berries.

PROGRESSIVE (Fall-bearing). The best ever-bearing variety to plant. They produce large crops of the best strawberries you ever ate.

Mrs. L. Clark Zeigler of Del. writes May 9, 1933: "I am well pleased with the plants and all seem to be living. They were all such sturdy plants."

Prices by express or parcel post—receiver to pay transportation charges. Terms: Cash with order.
